HARVARD COLLEGE PROJECT FOR
ASIAN AND INTERNATIONAL RELATIONS*HPAIR Harvard
Conference 2021
January 15th - 18th, 2021

Dear delegates,

3 days down, only 1 more to go! We hope you found today exciting, whether because of the empowering talks from female leaders, our wonderful associate Raymond's generous hosting of a second Trivia Night, or anything in between. As usual, below is a recap of today, the presidents' recommendations for Day 4 events, and reminders.

Day 3 Recap

Which fireside chats did you tune in to? From Lord Wei to Eric Goosby, we were truly inspired across the board.

Then, we hosted our second ever HPAIR Trivia Night, this time with $300+ in prizes for Amazon Echo devices, and it was yet another hit with everyone! Special shoutout to the Tech team, Delegate Experience team, and our host, associate Raymond Huang, for putting this together at the last minute!

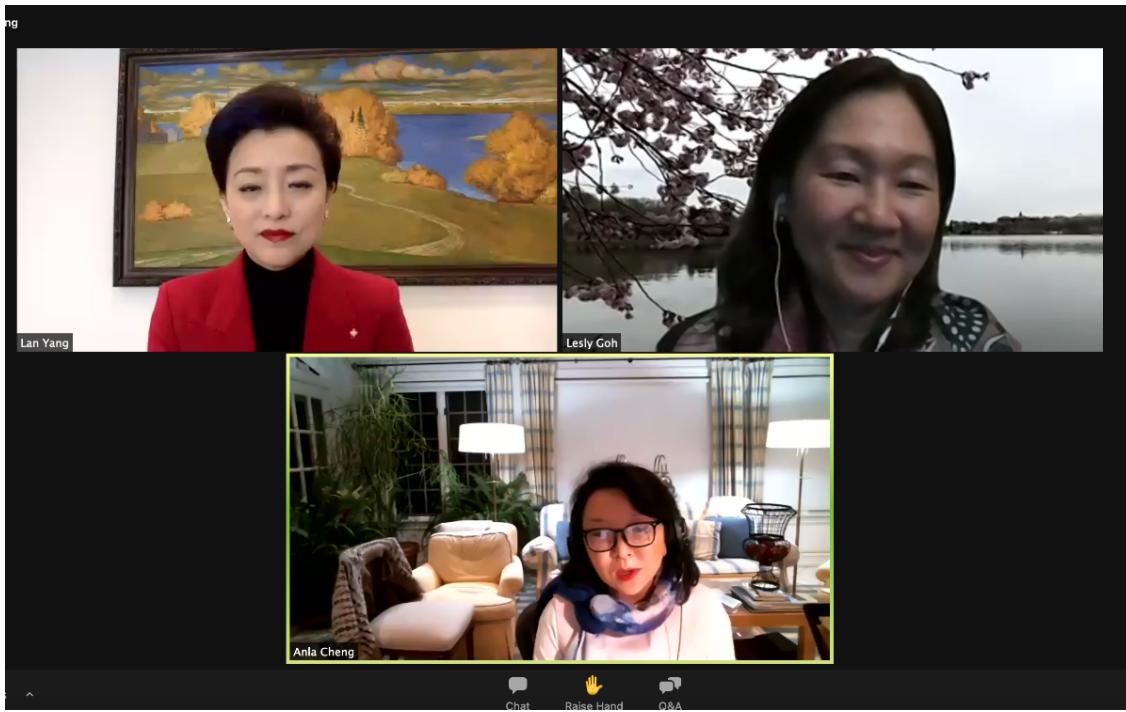

In the evening-- or in the morning for our Asia delegates! -- we sat down with yet another slate of powerful and influential speakers, from Raba Khan to Niya Dragova. You asked the important questions, they answered.

Did you sense a theme? We LOVED seeing all of these amazing women take the stage to talk about being leaders in what they do, including our guests and amazing Conference Programming team! Shoutout to Soy, Ellen, Angela, and Alice for their amazing moderating skills!

On that note, we can't forget our power trio of Lesly Goh, Anla Cheng, and Yang Lan, getting real about gender equality in the workplace and using our resources to give back to our communities.

We're so proud to be a part of this community of changemakers pushing for gender equality on the global stage, and we hope you are too.

Reminders

- If you need assistance during the conference, you can visit the Zoom help desk or email help@hpair.org.
- You may be receiving some emails from Run the World reminding you of scheduled times for events. Please disregard these emails and follow the schedule on the Run the World website, as the emails are sent as a result of a technical error.
- Please be respectful towards all speakers, HPAIR staff, and other delegates. Please do not use inappropriate language or spam the comments. We reserve the right to remove you from the conference without refund due to disrespectful conduct.
- Access to event recordings: In line with our HPAIR mission for accessibility, all HPAIR delegates will have access to recordings of main events (excluding executive seminars) during the conference. After the conference, only Gold tier delegates will have access to event recordings (links will be provided via email). Furthermore, only Gold tier delegates will have access to executive seminar recordings. Note: a few speakers have attended on the condition that no recording of their talk be made available. Such events will not be available for viewership.

We are looking forward to one last go-around tomorrow, and we hope you will join us for one last set of amazing speakers and chances to meet each other! See you in just a few short hours!

Best,
The HPAIR Team
